

Child Friendly Privacy Notice (13 - 18 years old)

At A Bear Named Buttony we want to let you know that your information is safe with us.

If you are under 13, we have to ask a parent/carer to share your information with us. We tell them how to keep that information safe in our other 'Privacy Notice.' It's a bit longer than this one!

If you are over 13 and you share information with us this notice explains how we keep your information safe.

1. What information about me do you ask for?

We ask young people to share their experiences of having a stoma. We ask what A Bear Named Buttony can do to help young people with a stoma.

If you get in touch through our Feedback Form, it is anonymous – we will not have your name or details. If you get in touch through our email address, we will collect your name and email address. If you get in touch through social media, the information we collect will depend on your settings for the platform.

2. Why do you ask for that information?

We want to make sure we are helping and getting it as right as we can!

3. How will A Bear Named Buttony use my information?

We will use your ideas to make resources that will help other young people who may be adjusting to living with a stoma. We may change the information you share with us so you cannot be identified.

4. How will A Bear Named Buttony look after information about me?

We will keep your information safe. We know that the information you share with us might be very personal.

5. How long do you keep information about me for?

We will only keep information for as long as we need to use it or as long as the law requires us to.

6. Who do you share information about me with?

We will only share your information with people who volunteer for A Bear Named Buttony. We will not share your information with anyone outside the charity. If we want to quote you directly as part of our resources, we will contact you and your parents to agree this.

7. What if I change my mind about sharing my information with you?

We shall erase, correct, or limit the use of your information if you ask us.

If you want to talk to us about how we use your information you can contact us via info@buttonybear.org.uk
